

MoreySmith

Graduate / Junior Interior Designer Full-time, Permanent

MoreySmith is looking for a talented and enthusiastic Graduate /Junior Interior Designer to join its team. MoreySmith work on a range of workplace, commercial development, hospitality and high-end residential projects and successful applicants will have the opportunity to work on high-profile projects from concept through to completion.

MoreySmith is a leading, award winning European design and architectural practice with over 27 years of experience and success. The energy and vigour in the studio based in London, combined with our forever 'rolled up sleeves' attitude drives us to challenge perceptions and constantly drive innovative solutions for clients, sustainable products and contribute holistically to our industry.

Ideal candidates will have:

- Creative flair and a conceptual approach to design
- Enthusiasm and the ability to show initiative
- An Interior Design degree (or otherwise relevant qualification)
- Good sketching and visualisation skills
- An ability to work as part of a team
- A keen interest and passion for design and spatial design
- Proven design eye and articulation of ideas
- Good understanding of materiality and design detail
- Collaborative working with good interpersonal skills
- Enthusiasm and the ability to show initiative

Digital Skills:

- AutoCAD
- Microsoft Office
- Adobe Suite (Photoshop & InDesign)
- Modelling software would be preferable

Additional notes:

At interview the candidate should bring projects that best demonstrate their abilities as well as sketchbooks and any digital media that supports their application. The interviewer will be looking for strong presentation skills, design articulation and creative and innovative design solutions.

All candidates should be eligible to work in the UK and be able to access the London studio based in London Bridge.

Please send CV and portfolio to:

jobs@morey.co.uk

www.moreysmith.com